Health Equity and Access

MUDIWAH KADESHE
MSN, RN, LNC, IBCLC, IMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT
Breastfeeding is a public health imperative. You can not separate it from health equity.
KNOWLEDGE PARTNERSHIPS FUNDING
PARTNERSHIPS
FUNDING
Preventing malnutrition in all its forms

Ensuring food security, even in times of crisis

Breaking the cycle of poverty
Breastfeeding is a public health imperative. You cannot separate it from health equity.

Equity starts with KNOWLEDGE.

PARTNERSHIPS are critical to our success.

FUNDING programs that deliver results is vital.